12th & Delaware

Join NARAL Pro-Choice California Foundation, the UCSF/UC Hastings Consortium, and the UC Hastings Law Students for Reproductive Justice for a free screening of 12th & Delaware. Food and beverages will be provided, and Q&A discussion will follow the film.

Directed by the makers of the Academy Award-nominated Jesus Camp, 12th & Delaware follows activity on a quiet street corner in Florida where a women's health clinic stands across from a so-called "crisis pregnancy center" (CPC). You will see how a CPC operates and how its tactics affect women. The film doesn't take a position on choice – it starts a conversation.
